

BASEBALL

SPORTS

ATHLETICS

SALT LAKE WINS;
SCORE 2 TO 0Angels Shut Out in Close Game With Blanken-ship's Men.

Los Angeles, July 7.—Salt Lake won today, but through no fault of their own. The failure of one of our noble outfielders to get down on his hands and knees and stop a ground ball forced the game on Salt Lake by a score of 2 to 0.

Both of their tallies came in on this fever, and thus did a great sorrow enter into the debut of Mr. Elliott Dent. A guy's debut should be one of the happiest moments of his life, but sometimes it doesn't work that way and today was one of those.

Mr. Dent, as many will recall, was recently released by San Francisco. Up there some of them seemed to think that he could not pitch. Just to show them that they were mistaken, Dent signed with the Tigers and on his first appearance amply vindicated himself. He smothered the visitors most of the way, and along about halfway Blankenship was offering his men as high as $9 apiece for base hits. All that the visitors got were five, and as three of these were made before Blankenship made his unrivaled offer, he was stung for but $18. His share of the receipts will more than offset this.

Runs000 002 000—2
Hits110 102 000—5
Vernon—.....000 000 000—0
Hits101 110 211—8

NEVER-RIPS WIN IN A FAST CONTEST

In the face of the gutted pitching of Heywood, one of the Never-Rips crack moundmen, the Eagles baseball team of the City League were only able to get seventeen men to the bat in the five-inning game played at Glenwood last night. Of the 17, Heywood managed to strike out 11, but on two hits and one error, the Eagles landed one run. Against this run, the Never-Rips piled up 3, winning the contest with a half inning to spare. Brooks, pitching for the leasers, allowed 5 hits and his teammates recorded 2 costly errors.

Captain Muller, of the Eagles, changed his lineup to a considerable extent last night, but the team managed to put up a dandy game against the Rips, who never worked in better form. The feature of the contest was a home-run "swat" by Sprague, who made the cleanest long hit of the season, sending the ball over the deep right field fence. A fast double play, Reardon to Campbell to L. Wessler, also proved a sensation. The lineup follows:

Eagles.....Never-Rips.
Rudiger.....C.....H. Stone
Brooks.....P.....Heywood
Campbell.....1b.....Sprague
Reardon.....2b.....G. Stone
L. Wessler.....3b.....W. Brown
Smalley.....ss.....Stanger

BASEBALL GAMES

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At Boston.—(First game) Washington 4, Boston 9; (second game) Boston 1, Washington 0.
At New York.—Philadelphia 5, New York 13; (second game) Philadelphia 6, New York 5.
At Cleveland.—Detroit-Cleveland game postponed; rain.
At St. Louis.—Chicago-St. Louis game postponed; rain.

Boston, July 7.—Only a fraction of a game separates Boston from Chicago in the race for leadership in the American league, as a result of the Red Sox double win over Washington today. Boston scored six straight victories in the series.

The first game was decided early in Boston's favor, as the local batsmen hit Gallia hard. The final score was 9 to 4. The second game was one of a single score. Barry's double, and singles by Leonard and Hooper were the factors in the run.

First Game.
Washington.....010 020 010—4
Boston.....205 010 000—9
Second Game.
Washington.....000 000 000—0
Boston.....001 000 000—1

New York, July 7.—The Philadelphia Athletics made it four games out of five from New York in their series by dividing a double-header today. New York took the first game 13 to 5, Philadelphia the second, 6 to 5.

The first game proved an amateurish exhibition. Crowell and Davis walked fourteen men and were found for twelve hits.

In the second game Shawkey, recently sold by the Athletics to New York, pitched his game in a Yankee uniform and was hit hard by his former teammates. Philadelphia won in the ninth by scoring a run on a pass to Walsh, Schang's double and McInnis' infield single.

First Game.
Philadelphia.....030 000 002—5
New York.....312 201 130—13
Second Game.
Philadelphia.....201 020 001—6
New York.....000 202 010—5

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
At Brooklyn.—(First game) Boston 3, Brooklyn 4; (second game) Boston 0, Brooklyn 0 (called end sixteenth inning).
At Philadelphia.—(First game) New York 5, Philadelphia 4; (second game) New York 0, Philadelphia 1 (ten innings).

At Pittsburgh.—Chicago 7, Pittsburgh 4.
Brooklyn, July 7.—After making it four straight from Boston by winning the first game of today's double-header, by 4 to 3, the Brooklyn fought out a sixteen-inning rubber tie. The first game was a battle between southpaws, Smith having a shade on Tyler. The Braves got a three-run lead in the first inning on three hits and an error by O'Mara, but after that they could do nothing with Smith. Daubert's home run to center, two errors and a single tied the score in the fourth.

The winning run was scored by Cutshaw on a pass, two outs and Getz timely hit.

The second game was called at the end of the sixteenth inning on account of darkness, after Douglass had fought a great duel with James and Davis. The Braves got only one hit off Douglass in the first nine innings, and only four altogether.

First Game.
Boston.....300 000 000—3
Brooklyn.....000 301 000—4
Second Game.
Boston.....000 000 000 000 000—0
Brooklyn.....000 000 000 000 000—0

Philadelphia, July 7.—New York and Philadelphia divided a double-header here today, the Giants taking the opener, 5 to 4, and the home team the second game, which went ten innings, 1 to 0. In the first contest both Mathewson and Mayer were hit hard, but double plays saved the former. It was suffrage day and Niehoff was presented with $10 for making a home run.

In the closing event, Tesrau pitched to only twenty-seven batsmen in nine innings. Only two men got on bases, and these were victims in double plays.

First Game.
New York.....003 001 001—5
Philadelphia.....020 011 000—4
Second Game.
New York.....000 000 000 0—0
Philadelphia.....000 000 000 1—1

Pittsburgh, July 7.—Heavy hitting by Zimmerman and Fisher helped Chicago defeat Pittsburgh, 7 to 4, here today. Adams was knocked out of the box in the third inning, after yielding six hits and five runs. Cooper relieved him and he in turn gave way to Conzelmann. Lavender kept the Pirates' hits scattered except in the ninth, when a pass, two hits and a steal scored two runs.

Chicago.....32 000 110—7
Pittsburgh.....110 000 002—4

FEDERAL LEAGUE.
At Baltimore.—Newark 5, Baltimore 3.
At Brooklyn.—Buffalo 3, Brooklyn 2. Only two scheduled.

Baltimore, July 7.—Newark made it two straight from Baltimore today, 5 to 3. Laporte's homer in the first inning with two on was a feature. Baltimore dropped into last place.

Newark.....5 6 2
Baltimore.....3 8 1
Batteries.—Branden and Hariden; Bailey and Owens.

First Good Start.
Brooklyn, July 7.—Cy Marshall today started his first winning game of the season for Buffalo, the visitors defeating Brooklyn 3 to 2. Marshall was invincible up to the eighth inning, when the locals scored their only runs on two singles and a pass. Bedient, who succeeded Marshall, held the locals safe in the last session.

Buffalo.....3 7 0
Brooklyn.....2 4 2
Batteries.—Marshall, Bedient and Blair; Walker and Griggs.

SEALS TAKE
OPENING GAME

Weird Baseball Exhibition Between Oaks and Seals—Bobby Jones Makes
Three Errors.

San Francisco, July 7.—It was a weird baseball exhibition that was staged this afternoon by the rival Oaks and Seals in their opener of the series, with more loose baseball than you would see in a month of Sundays, but the San Franciscans, after going through all manner of maneuvering, beat the game by 4 to 3.

In one way the luck was with them, for their six hits meant more than the Oaklanders' nine, despite the six errors piled up by the infielders, everyone of whom made at least one error with three for Bobby Jones.

Runs.....010 000 100—2
Hits.....020 120 211—9
San Francisco.....002 010 000—3
Hits.....012 011 010—6

BEAVERS LICKED
BY LOS ANGELES

Angels Makes Four Runs in First Inning Making Coveleskie Look Like a Busher.

Portland, July 7.—Los Angeles started its series with Portland today by administering an unmerciful trouncing to the Beaver aggregation. Twelve to nothing tells the story.

Los Angeles lost no time in sinking the beavers. They tore into the Beavers for four runs in the first inning, knocked Evans out of the box in two innings with three hits, and made Coveleskie, who went to the rescue, look like a busher.

Runs.....403 122 000—12
Hits.....314 214 010—16
Portland.....000 000 000—0
Hits.....000 001 010—2

LIBERTY BELL
IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Mo., July 8.—The Liberty bell arrived here today, its coming being announced by blowing of whistles all over the city. The car upon which the relic is making its cross-country trip, was drawn into a business district on a siding, where ceremonies in its honor were held. Governor Major of Missouri and Mayor Jost of Kansas City participated in the exercises with many others, prominent among whom were descendants of signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The Travelogues and Robert Warwick, Alhambra.

CHURCH SHOULD BE ADVERTISER

Director of School of Journalism Advises All Cause to Pay for Publicity.

MORE HONEST METHOD

Newspaper Methods Greatly Improved—Moral Advance
Began Seventy-five Years Ago.

San Francisco, Cal., July 8.—Churches should advertise, so should education, causes of various sorts, and corporations, Talcott Williams, director of the School of Journalism at the Pulitzer Foundation in Columbia university, told delegates to the International Press congress in an address here today.

"As the state remits taxation on church and school," he said, "so the newspaper should give free publicity to these and like objects, but only as the state remits taxes where there is no financial return. As the state does not support or aid the aggressive growth of these agencies, so these agencies, causes and corporations should have their fight in the advertisements, a freer, more efficient, more manly and more honest method of gaining publicity than getting it by influence, or maintaining a lobby."

Great Advertising Improvement.
Great improvement, he said, was being shown in the class of advertising handled by newspapers since "those poverty stricken days when leading newspapers freely accepted advertisements which the worst would not print today, and Horace Greeley publicly wrangled over official advertising which carried with it political subservience."

The moral advance began, he said, with efforts three quarters of a century ago, to exclude lottery notices.

BACKACHE KILLS!

Don't make the fatal mistake of neglecting what may seem to be a "simple little backache." There isn't any such thing. It may be the first warning that your kidneys are not working properly, and throwing off the poisons as they should. If this is the case, go after the cause of that backache and do it quickly, or you may find yourself in the grip of an incurable disease.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will give almost immediate relief from kidney and bladder troubles, which may be the unexpected cause of general ill health. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They are prepared in correct quantity and convenient form to take, and are positively guaranteed to give prompt relief, or your money will be refunded. Get them at any drug store, but be sure to insist on the GOLD MEDAL brand, and take no other. Prices 25c, 50c and $1.00.—Advertisement.

AUSTRIANS SINK
ITALIAN CRUISER

Warship Taking Part in Upper Adriatic Reconnaissance Torpedoed by Submarine.

Wonderful Courage and Discipline Is Shown as Ship Goes Down.

Rome, July 7, via Paris, July 8, 8:40 a. m.—The Italian armored cruiser Amalfi was torpedoed and sunk at dawn this morning by an Austrian submarine, while taking part in a reconnaissance in the upper Adriatic. It was officially announced tonight by the ministry of marine. Most of the members of the crew were saved.

The text of the statement follows: "A reconnaissance in force was accomplished last night (July 6) in the upper Adriatic. The Amalfi, which took part in the reconnaissance, was torpedoed at dawn this morning by an Austrian submarine and immediately listed heavily to starboard.

Crew Cheers King and Italy.
"The commander, before giving orders to the crew to jump overboard cried: 'Long live the king, long live Italy.' The entire crew drawn up along the stern echoed the shout, giving a remarkable exhibition of courage and discipline.

"The commander, who was the last to leave, slipped overboard shortly before the Amalfi sank. Nearly all the officers and crew were saved."

The Amalfi, which was completed in 1908, had a displacement of 9558 tons and was 426 feet long. Her complement in times of peace was 684.

Pola, the Austrian naval stronghold, is situated in the upper Adriatic at the extremity of the Istria peninsula about fifty-five miles southeast of Trieste. It is probable the reconnaissance referred to in the Italian statement was in this section of the Adriatic.

CARRANZA FORCES
DEFEAT VILLA

Over Five Hundred Men Killed
in Twelve-hour Battle—
Northern Chief's Troops
Outnumbered.

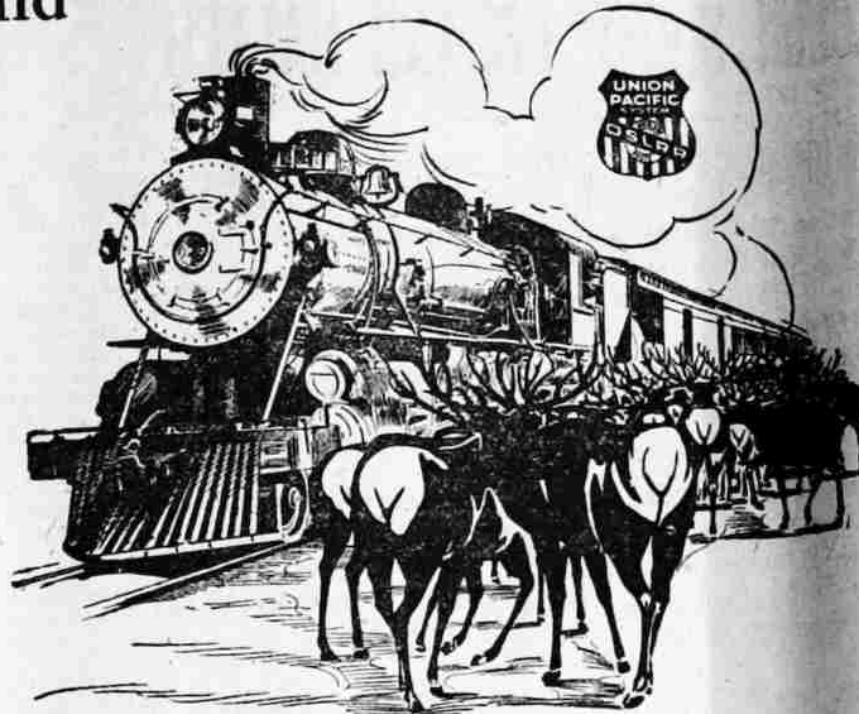

Laredo, Texas, July 8.—Carranza authorities at Nuevo Laredo, opposite here, announced last night that as a result of a twelve-hour battle yesterday they had captured Icamole and relieved Monterey and surrounding territory from immediate attack by Villa forces.

Icamole lies 32 miles northwest of Monterey and to the northward of Paredon, which the Carranza forces to Los Angeles and the Expositions.

Go with Utah Elks

Special Train July 9th.

$35
Round Trip

Special Pullman sleepers from OGDEN at 10:45 A. M., via Oregon Short Line, Union Pacific System, connecting with SPECIAL TRAIN from Salt Lake via Salt Lake Route at 1:00 P. M.

For tickets, reservations, itinerary, etc., call at CITY TICKET OFFICE, Orpheum Block, 2514 Washington Ave., or Phone 2500.

W. H. CHEVERS, General Agent.

PAUL L. BEEMER, City Passenger & Ticket Agent.

WHO PAYS?
Story No. 11

The Fruit of Folly

Copyright, 1915, by Pathe Exchange, Inc. All moving picture rights and all foreign copyrights strictly reserved.

(CONTINUED FROM YESTERDAY.)

Dr. Dessing came hurriedly to the bedside. He made another examination of the sinking man and his face was very grave. He glanced at the nurse and slowly shook his head. Slight as was his motion, it did not escape the invalid.

"Tell me the truth, doctor," West demanded. "Am I really dying?"

"Dying! I MUST see Edgar Clay Phone him."

Dubiously the doctor hesitated for a moment; then nodding acquiescence, took his hat and hurried to the nearest phone at the neighboring cigar counter.

And thus it was that Russell Irwin and Edgar Clay were interrupted in their conference the second time.

"It's a call from a diviner man. I don't know him but perhaps I'd better go," announced Clay, turning from the phone.

"Yes, go," said Irwin. "We can do no good here."

And while Clay was on his way to the humble cottage of the attorney's man, Dr. Dessing had sent yet another phone message. This time it was to Horace Stone.

"I thought I'd tell you, Horace, that your old clerk is dying. His end is very near. It is only a question of minutes."

"Too bad, too bad," answered Stone in a voice that seemed to have something of relief in it. Too bad. Poor fellow. Keep on doing everything be alone with his guest.

"Take that pad and pen from off the table, and write as I dictate," the dying man commanded. And this is the statement he made with the last ounce of breath in his emaciated body:

"I relieve my soul by the confession that I paid and pen from off the table, and wrote as I dictate," the dying man commanded. And this is the statement he made with the last ounce of breath in his emaciated body:

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

And then as if his waning strength, West took the pen from the young man's hand, and with a firmness that was remarkable in one so near death, penned his name, in a good, clear signature at the bottom of the confession.

Important to Ogden

Utah Day Celebration, Pioneer Day, July 24th, at Panama Pacific International Exposition will be participated in by Governor Spry and Full Staff, The Ogden Choir, The Utah Exposition Commission, The Officials of the Utah Genealogical Society, The Salt Lake City
High School Cadets and Lovers of Utah.

Make Ogden Show

Special, personally conducted train leaves Ogden
3:45 p. m., July 22nd, Arrives San Francisco 4:11 p. m., July 23rd, via Southern Pacific.

For reservations write or phone

C. A. HENRY, Agent,
Union Depot, Ogden, Utah.

C. L. McFAUL, District Agent,
410 Waker Bank Bldg.
Salt Lake City, Utah.
Phone Wasatch 6900.

A SUCCESSFUL
FISHERMAN

is one who takes no chances with doubtful tackle. When you wish to enjoy a good day's sport, equip yourself with a good bamboo pole and with all the appurtenances that make fishing delightful. And don't forget that this is the place to get the best of everything at the right prices.

PROUDFIT SPORTING GOODS CO.

The Travelogues and Robert Warwick, Alhambra.

"MONEY"

The mint makes it and under the terms of the CONTINENTAL MORT-GAGE COMPANY you can secure it at 6 per cent for any legal purpose on approved real estate. Terms easy, tell us your wants and we will cooperate with you.

PETTY & COMPANY,
513 Denham Building Denver, Colo.

You can for him, doctor, and send me
the bills as you have been doing."

"All right," answered the doctor, and then as an afterthought he added,
"and, by the way, West begged me to send for Edgar Clay. He said he had to see him before he died."

"Some foolish fancy, no doubt," quickly interrupted Stone. "He'll have forgotten it by now. Pay no attention to it."

"But I already have," answered the doctor, and he was surprised at the suddenness with which the conversation terminated. Stone had hung up on him.

Clay and death made a merry race of it for the bedside of Stone's old clerk. And Clay won. He did not need more than one glance at the stricken man, did not need the warning gesture of the nurse, to make him realize that his victory had been by
the narrowest of margins.

Feeling raising one trembling hand,
West haltingly grasped Clay's extended palm and indicated to the doctor and nurse that he wished to

had gazed long and earnestly after him as he strode away. Anxiety and hate were depicted on the attorney's face as he shrugged his shoulders in impatient rage and muttered to himself:

"I must find out what he knows!"

CHAPTER IV.
And now, impelled by the swift and inevitable fate that had been released by Folly's hand, events were moving swift and fast to a certain crisis.

Slowly the pattern in the wool of these people's lives was being completed. Poor fools all, they had done about to pay the price.

Mrs. Clay was back at Cora Blake's, playing heavily as was her wont, and partner's office showing him West's gesture of the nurse, to make him realize that his victory had been by
the narrowest of margins.

Feeling raising one trembling hand,
West haltingly grasped Clay's extended palm and indicated to the
doctor and nurse that he wished to

(CONTINUED TOMORROW.)